

New Goods

American Bacon	lb. 20c
Endive	lb. 28c
Tomatoes	lb. 15c
Bull-nose Peppers 6 for 25c
Egg Plant	15c
Oyster Plant	12c
Pineapples	15c
English Walnuts	18c
Cranberries	10c
Lettuce	10c
Chickory	10c

SOMERS

MR. H. T. MILLER'S
School for Dancing

Classes Saturday: Beginners, 2 p. m.; Advanced, 4:45 p. m. Special arrangements may be made for private classes. At Academy daily from 4 to 5. Telephone 1640.

CARD

We take pleasure in announcing that we have in stock GENTLEMEN'S CLOTHING made from the famous pure virgin wool

EARNSDALE WORSTED FABRICS

We invite your critical inspection

THE F. A. WELLS CO.
NORWICH

REMOVAL NOTICE

Studio Specialty Shop
52 Church St., Norwich, Ct.

Gowns, Waists, Negligees, Lingerie, Neckwear and Dress Accessories.

Monday, November 20th.

Maple Sugar
at Rallion's

THE AUTO-TRANSFER CO.
Successor to
The Norwich Parcel Delivery.
Office: 262 West Main St. Telephone 176-6.
Branch Office: 182 Main St. Telephone 166-2.
ROBERT W. OTIS.

You are most cordially invited to inspect our offerings of Beautiful which embrace a wide range of subjects and styles.

ILLUSTRATED BOOKS

A fact which speaks volumes for the line is that we have already been obliged to place duplicate orders and have never sold as many high class books in so short a time as during the past week.

Come in and allow us the pleasure of showing you the line.

Ask to see the Magazine Covers in Leather—something very choice.

CRANSTON & CO.

In the City Court.

J. Gellin in the City Court Monday was given 15 days in jail for breach of the peace.

The continued case against Aaron Marcus, concerning his auctioneer's license, was again continued until Wednesday, as the appealed case comes up in the criminal court of common pleas this week.

The case against Frank Hoxie for kidnapping his wife's son, so hard he broke it, was again continued for three weeks, until she can appear.

Saved Many from Death.

W. L. Moeck of Moock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, grippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection. For I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it is the best, most tried and lung medicine that's made. Easy to prove, it's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1 bottle. Guaranteed by The Lee & Osgood Co."

A Father's Vengeance would have fallen on anyone who attacked the son of Peter Soudy of South Rockwood, Mich. But he was powerless before attacks of kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. It's the best kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, tired feeling, nervousness, loss of appetite, water of kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware! Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c. At The Lee & Osgood Co.

A Household Medicine that stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Palmer, 224 Jefferson St., So. Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." Lee & Osgood Co.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, Nov. 21, 1911.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Musicians are preparing to note St. Cecilia's day on Wednesday.

Considerable painting and repairing are being done about town, before winter sets in.

Wise men drink water. The wisest—Clysmic.—adv.

The moon was new Monday evening and the weatherwise do not like a rain storm on such date.

Today the Catholic churches will commemorate the feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin.

Special meeting of Court Sachem this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. Business of importance.—adv.

The supper of the Mohegan sewing society are held every month, not weekly, as stated by a typographical error.

It is stated that, according to tradition, we were here 14 and 15 years the coming winter, also that the winter will be a very warm one.

Fred Holdsworth of Norwich addressed the socialist meeting in William Street Sunday afternoon, speaking on Socialism and Municipal Politics.

At the annual election of St. Margaret's parish Holy Name society of Waterbury, Dr. Louis T. Cassidy, formerly of Norwich, was elected secretary.

Some of the old soldiers recalled Monday that it was on November 20, 1862, that the first national encampment of the G. A. R. was held at Indianapolis.

Plainfield parish fair, tonight, Thursday and Saturday evenings. Trolley leaves Franklin square at 7:45.—adv.

Most of the trees are leafless and the property owner who has raked his lawn and burned the leaves is freed from annoyance for the remainder of the season.

A handsome addition to the motor vehicles in town is the beautiful limousine of L. O. Smith of Washington street, which attracted much attention Monday.

The Carpenters' union received three applications for membership at its meeting on Monday evening at the Carpenters' hall. President William McNeely was in the chair.

The second number of the Academy Journal for this school year made its appearance on Monday. Its cover design is new, neat and attractive, inviting to the good things inside.

The Adelphi club gave a private social Monday night at Cadillac hall, with a good attendance. The Cadillac orchestra played for the enjoyable dance programme from 9 o'clock to 12.

William Hill, night ticket agent at the union station, New London, has resigned, to go into other business. His place will be taken by Edward Moriarty, clerk on the Norwich line road.

At the Buckingham Memorial, where Swick post No. 1, G. A. R., is having necessary repairs and renovations made to the building, the workmen are now finishing the upper and lower main halls.

Montville grange, P. of H., is to celebrate the first anniversary of the organization on Wednesday evening. The district deputy has been invited to be present and a supper will be served.

The Plainfield Land and Building Co. are anxious to receive bids for remodeling Maple Court. For particulars apply A. D. Thompson, Jr., Room 5, Shannon Bldg; evenings seven to nine.—adv.

The hall barn, on Cliff street, which is being altered over for the new cigar factory of George A. Madden, may be ready for occupancy by the end of the week. The carpenters are at work on the interior finishing.

Organizer J. W. Lawton of the Woodmen of the World was a visitor here on Monday. He has been at work in Putnam, recruiting the membership of that camp, and is shortly to go to work in East Hartford.

The burial of the child regarding which a mother, Miss Perkins, of Church, is held in the local jail, took place at 11 o'clock Monday morning in the Asylum street cemetery. Undertaker Gager was in charge.

Earl C. Whaley, from Wakefield, is North Stonington, employed on a job by Ripley Park, who is making changes in the water privilege, putting in a new concrete flume and otherwise improving the place.

A meeting of the executive board of the Connecticut Congress of Mothers is to be held at Waterbury today (Tuesday). Many prominent women from all over the state are included in this board and expect to be present.

There is local interest in the announcement that President Edward T. Ware of Atlanta University is working in the north in the interests of his college and spoke at the vespers service at Smith college, Sunday afternoon.

On Monday, in St. Patrick's church, relatives and friends attended an anniversary requiem high mass for the repose of the souls of Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan and children of Talman street. The mass was celebrated by Rev. Hugh Treanor.

Dr. Boon's dental office will be continued by Mrs. George A. Boon, with competent dental work will be guaranteed as usual. Will be pleased to meet all former patients, also all new ones, who desire substantial work. All contracts will be finished as agreed.—adv.

A tablet in memory of Charles Sigourney, husband of Mrs. Lydia Sigourney, the poetess, has been placed in Christ church, Hartford, by relatives. When Mrs. Sigourney was a girl her home was Louthorpe, the Gilman mansion, on Washington street, Norwich.

A small fire in the coal bunker of the Norwich liner City of Lowell, was extinguished Saturday after several hours' hard work. The big liner was at the wharf at the foot of the New London for the winter. The fire probably started from spontaneous combustion.

Nothing new has been received regarding the disappearance of Harry B. Howard of Niantic, Thursday night. The general opinion is that he was swept out in his small boat by the strong current into Long Island sound, where the boat was swamped and he was drowned.

St. Anne's T. A. society voted at its last regular business meeting to put a canvasser in the field as the society's representative for St. Mary's T. A. and B. society's coming anniversary festival in January. St. Anne's representative will be in the competition to win the prize for her society.

Capt. Samuel J. Caffee, 79, died at his home in Bridgeport Sunday, after an illness of several weeks' duration. He was a member of Elias Howe post, No. 3, A. R. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. W. H.

Hart of Stratford, and two sons, Robert W. of New London, and Edward B. of Bridgeport.

The state board of trade meeting will be held at New London on Thursday, Nov. 23.

Kristel and Malcolm, the two Norwich gymnasts, furnished a star attraction last Saturday night at the military fair in Westerly with a programme of hand balancing. They were given much applause for their clever act.

About 11 o'clock Monday morning an actress who boards at the Craney house, 114 Main street, while carrying a candle to look for something in a closet, set fire to the clothing. The driver of a laundry wagon helped the women in the house to extinguish the blaze, which charred the closet shelves. The burning clothing was thrown out on the piazza roof overlooking Dexterville lane, by the young lady who caused the excitement, and who burned her hands a little.

PERSONAL

John A. Schwartz of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Norwich friends.

Amos Cutler of Norwich was the guest of friends in Mystic Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Washburn and family spent Sunday at their cottage in the Pines, at Niantic.

Mrs. William Smith of Dorchester, formerly of this city, is the guest of relatives for a short visit.

Miss Maud Chapman has been engaged as teacher of the sixth grade in the school at Stafford Springs and left there Monday.

Miss Anna Ducey of New London, who suffered a severe fall and injury to her knee while in Norwich nearly two weeks ago, is still confined to her room.

Mrs. Frederick R. Starkey with her son, Master Otis Starkey, and her mother, Mrs. M. A. Hirsch, are to spend this week in New York, visiting Mrs. Starkey's brother.

Earl Northrop of South Lyme, who has been in Memorial hospital, New London, for six weeks suffering from injuries sustained in an automobile accident, is much improved, and will soon be able to be about.

VINEYARD WORKERS.

Second Meeting of Season Discusses India's Awakening.

The Vineyard Workers of the Central Baptist church held the second meeting of the season Monday evening at the church, under the leadership of the Rev. Frank R. Booth, and the topic for the evening had reference to the general plan of study for the year, which is India's Awakening.

Prayer papers were presented upon the following subjects: Contrast With America, Miss Belle Rathbone; Diversity of Language, Miss Charlotte Barbour; Obstacles to Development, Mrs. C. D. Sevin; Caste, What is It? Mrs. M. D. Millard; What Factors Produce Caste, Miss B. A. Grimes; Number of Castes, Mrs. A. Thayer; Authority for Caste, Mrs. John H. Barnes; What is Forbidden and Permitted, Mrs. C. L. Swan; What Effects on the People Through Caste, Mrs. A. F. Wyman; How the Caste Problem is to be Solved, Mrs. H. H. Pettis; Peculiarities of Castes, Mrs. W. R. McCord.

To what extent would present agencies be adequate to deal with the population of India should it suddenly immigrate here, Miss A. M. Dean; discussion, if caste were utterly abolished by law, do you think such a thing should be done, Miss Dean and Mrs. Edward Y. Messenger; summary, What is the message of Christianity regarding caste, Mrs. Rath.

AT POLI'S THEATER.

The Wife.

Thoroughly appreciating the Poli Players in each of the four acts of the interesting drama, The Wife, the audiences on Monday were free in their manifestations of approval and a number of curtain calls were given. Again the stage settings and the scenic effects drew forth most favorable comment.

The moving picture reel interested the audience, while the xylophone solo by Robert Schmitz, who is a member of the orchestra, was a fine feature.

The title role of the play is most capably handled by Victoria Montgomery, who is excellent in the many situations in which she is placed. Her work is done with smoothness and in an interesting manner, while playing opposite Tom Moore, who is a fine actor.

The moving picture reel interested the audience, while the xylophone solo by Robert Schmitz, who is a member of the orchestra, was a fine feature.

The title role of the play is most capably handled by Victoria Montgomery, who is excellent in the many situations in which she is placed. Her work is done with smoothness and in an interesting manner, while playing opposite Tom Moore, who is a fine actor.

The moving picture reel interested the audience, while the xylophone solo by Robert Schmitz, who is a member of the orchestra, was a fine feature.

The title role of the play is most capably handled by Victoria Montgomery, who is excellent in the many situations in which she is placed. Her work is done with smoothness and in an interesting manner, while playing opposite Tom Moore, who is a fine actor.

The moving picture reel interested the audience, while the xylophone solo by Robert Schmitz, who is a member of the orchestra, was a fine feature.

The title role of the play is most capably handled by Victoria Montgomery, who is excellent in the many situations in which she is placed. Her work is done with smoothness and in an interesting manner, while playing opposite Tom Moore, who is a fine actor.

The moving picture reel interested the audience, while the xylophone solo by Robert Schmitz, who is a member of the orchestra, was a fine feature.

The title role of the play is most capably handled by Victoria Montgomery, who is excellent in the many situations in which she is placed. Her work is done with smoothness and in an interesting manner, while playing opposite Tom Moore, who is a fine actor.

The moving picture reel interested the audience, while the xylophone solo by Robert Schmitz, who is a member of the orchestra, was a fine feature.

The title role of the play is most capably handled by Victoria Montgomery, who is excellent in the many situations in which she is placed. Her work is done with smoothness and in an interesting manner, while playing opposite Tom Moore, who is a fine actor.

The moving picture reel interested the audience, while the xylophone solo by Robert Schmitz, who is a member of the orchestra, was a fine feature.

POLICEMAN MORROW IS DISMISSED

Council Finds That Charges Against Him For Bad Language Were Proved—Did Not Appear at the Hearing—Two Witnesses Testify.

The special meeting of the court of common council Monday evening, for the purpose of holding a hearing on the complaint from the police commissioners against Policeman Richard R. Morrow, was attended by but few there being only a dozen present when it was called to order, following an adjourned meeting of the body.

Clark Kelly read the complaint, which charged Policeman Morrow with saying "Go to hell" and "Damn you" to George C. Butts on October 9. After the hearing was declared open, Mr. Thayer asked if Mr. Morrow was present or represented, and Attorney Kelly said he had been asked to take charge of the matter.

Talk in Police Station.

Captain George B. Linton was called as the first witness, and testified to hearing on duty when Mr. Morrow made the statements alleged. He heard Mr. Morrow talk to Mr. Butts. Mr. Butts came into the police station and asked to have a woman outside arrested. Going there, he found Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, and Mr. Butts said she was the woman. Captain Linton started to tell that Mrs. Morrow complained of seeing Mr. Morrow and Mrs. Butts near the theater, but he was asked as to what language Mr. Morrow used to Mr. Butts. He declared that Policeman Morrow called Mr. Butts a cur and told him "to go to hell, for if you can't see a woman, you can't see a man."

There was more talk in the station, where Mr. Morrow used the same language in an emphatic manner.

Mr. Butts made a complaint and saw what he could do. He said everyone about Lincoln avenue had been trying to get him off the force. He said he would be at the hearing, but he was not there.

Morrow said "We could go to Panama and have a good time if she had all the money that belonged to her." He claimed the complaint was a wife came to him on the street.

"Damn you" was used, but just where in the conversation Captain Linton could not say.

Councilman Barry asked if the policeman was in uniform and was told that he was not, that he wore his coat and hat.

Corporation Counsel Fanning presented the complaint to the police commissioners, signed by Mr. Butts, which alleged wilful and improper language.

At the hearing before the police commissioners Captain Linton testified that Policeman Morrow pleaded guilty to the charges.

Mr. Butts Called.

George C. Butts told of meeting Morrow at the entrance to the police station about 9:45 p. m. on October 19. In the police station Mr. Morrow called him a cur, told him to go to hell and said "I can't see a woman, I can't see a man."

He declared, whatever he said out of his mouth, he said in an angry manner, but he spoke first. He did not call him any names, and never spoke fifty words to the policeman in his life. As to the woman, he said he changed his mind. He considered her a cur.

FAIRVIEW SHOWS GAIN OF TWELVE INCHES.

Test of Trading Cove Brook Water Shows Filters Are Working Fine.

A measurement of the water in Fairview reservoir on Monday showed it to be 137 inches below high water mark, a gain of 12 inches since the last storm, of which it was 129 inches down. It stands the best now that has in two months, and it is 12 feet higher than it was a year ago today, when it was found necessary to turn on the water from Mohegan lake.

At Meadow brook there is quite a body of water ponded, it being 15 inches above the 24-inch pipe on Monday, so that the gain at Fairview should continue for a day or two. At Stony brook there is also a large amount of water. The pipe line is being rushed along as fast as possible.

The department has reached a point in West Main street, where the railroad bridge over the New Haven road track at the elevator building. Here the pipe must go under the sidewalk portion of the bridge, and it is expected that this end of the pipe line will be finished before the first of the month.

Contractors will finish by that time, but Contractor Dodd has about 1,200 feet to go.

On Saturday Superintendent Corkery received the report from State Chemist that a sample of the water taken from the Trading Cove pipe line after going through the filters. This was taken on Nov. 8, after going into details as to the analysis, the report closes as follows:

The above results show that the filter at this time was removing 84.7 per cent of the color, 84.7 per cent of the organic matter as calculated from the oxygen consumed test, and 98 per cent of the bacteria. No color bacilli were found in the filtered water.

These results are very satisfactory and indicate that the filter is doing very satisfactory work at the present time.

Y. M. C. A. BASKETBALL.

Enthusiasts to Meet to Select Teams and Arrange Schedule.

All the basketball enthusiasts of the Y. M. C. A. are to gather at a meeting on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock to discuss the plans for the formation of a number of teams and the arrangement of a schedule of games.

Physical Director A. C. Poirer has extended invitations to the mothers of the boys in the junior gymnasium classes to attend the classes on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 to see the results of the new equipment.

One of the new activities of the Y. M. C. A. is to be the organization of a gle club with C. J. Geor as leader. It is to be started soon and a sufficient number indicate their intention of joining.

OBITUARY.

E. D. Nash.

Word was received at New London Monday night of the death Saturday of E. D. Nash, for many years superintendent of the southern division of the Vermont Central railroad and previous to that time connected with the Boston and Maine. Mr. Nash left there two and a half years ago to assume charge of the Changuin railroad at Panama, and his death was understood to have followed an operation for stomach trouble. He leaves his mother, who lives in Warren, Vt., and a wife and one son.

Frank E. Barker, who has been closely identified with religious, municipal and banking interests of New London for many years, died Saturday night a few minutes before 7 o'clock. He had been seriously ill for a week, although he had suffered from a disease of the heart, which gradually became acute, for a long time. Mr. Barker was 25 years old.

acted as a prudent citizen. There were other things improper and unbecoming an officer that the policeman said, declared Mr. Butts. He took exceptions to the police commissioners, who, he said, he didn't care anything about. He mentioned one commissioner's name and spoke about him in a discourteous manner.

Attorney Kelly at first insisted upon knowing why Mr. Butts came to headquarters, but later withdrew his question as not desiring to go into private matters.

Policeman Morrow Not Present.

Attorney Kelly said that Mr. Morrow was not present and no defense was offered. He said he didn't consider the offense severe enough to warrant a dismissal, as it is not serious to use profane language, and he thought a suspension sufficient.

The rules of the department requiring civil and respectful deportment of a policeman at all times were read by the mayor, as were several sections relating to the requirements of a policeman. For the disobedience of which any policeman may be dismissed, intoxication, wilful disobedience and violent, coarse and insolent language were among the causes.

Attorney Kelly thought there was provocation, and Corporation Counsel Fanning said if there was provocation Mr. Morrow should appear and state it. He didn't offer any recommendation to the council, but said that no matter what the provocation a policeman should not use profane or disrespectful language.

Attorney Kelly thought it a well known fact that policemen lie and swear, use profane language and lose their temper, but Mr. Fanning said he never knew of a single instance and should be able to prove it. He knew of no policeman who had any such record.

Resolution of Dismissal.

A resolution was presented by Alderman Gebraeth and adopted. It found that the charges against Policeman Morrow had been proven and he was ordered dismissed and removed from the police force.

Before the vote was taken Councilman Baker asked if the accused had been before the board before and was told that he had previously been suspended. It being the second time, he said, he had nothing to say.

Alderman McLaughlin thought the penalty too severe. Alderman Gebraeth said he would agree to that statement if it was the first offense, but it is the second.

Mayor Thayer told of the previous suspension and said that if there are others guilty there should be a further investigation. He thought he should have been suspended on the spot.

Vote Was 5 to 4.

The vote when taken, the police commissioners not being allowed to participate, stood 5 to 4 in favor of dismissal. Those in favor were Alderman Gebraeth and Beckley and Councilmen Barron, Fowler and Angell. Those opposed were Alderman McLaughlin and Councilmen Baker, Crutcher and Williams. The resolution was adopted.

That completed the business and the meeting adjourned soon after 9 o'clock.

PRINCIPAL TIRRELL TALKS ON SENSES OF MAN.

There Are Wonders All Around Us to the Senses That Appreciate.

For their November meeting Trinity Methodist Brotherhood had an attendance of about thirty men on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the primary room at the church, the session opening with a brief business meeting at which President Elmer D. Kinsman was in the chair. Franklin Rumford was elected vice president in the place of K. E. Morrison, who left the city to begin a business in Albany, N. Y.

President Kinsman then introduced Principal H. A. Tirrell of the Norwich Free Academy, who gave the members an instructive talk which was listened to with close attention upon The Senses of Man. While man is ordinarily credited with five senses, Mr. Tirrell summed these all up in the sense of appreciation, the power to take hold of the things around us. To the senses that appreciate there are wonders all around us, for we take hold of anything and study it enough we are bound to get something out of it. The pyramids of Egypt have been called one of the wonders of the world, but they are no more wonderful than the things around us every day. Compare them, for instance, with the thirteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States. What it represents more of an outlay in money, into which was more of the soul of man put, or which measures more of the progress of the human race.

Illustrating again how the power of appreciation applied to the common things around us would draw from the countless lessons and stimulate to thought, he said that even such a simple thing as a book was one of the most wonderful things around us, which we consider its form, the mechanism which has produced it, or what is in it. He proceeded to show how from the first records kept on clay tablets the development of the book had proceeded down through the single roll of papyrus, then the double roll, then to the writing on both sides, next the pages folded in, then the book, from that to the page form when somebody thought of cutting the picares. The development from handwriting to the present type was also briefly sketched and likewise the discovery of producing paper cheap. But after all it is not the physical side of the book that is the wonderful thing, but what is in it. It lengthens the life of every great thinker to ages beyond his lifetime. The wonderful is all about you. You can find it on the street, but it is in it. It lengthens the life of every great thinker to ages beyond his lifetime. The wonderful is all about you. You can find it on the street, but it is in it. It lengthens the life of every great thinker to ages beyond his lifetime.

He indicated also briefly something of the immensities of the universe in which the earth and man is such a small thing and yet through his power of appreciation comes to a feeling that he is akin to all that is behind this great universe. We can enter into the universe of appreciation, and yet the only thing that is worth while, what all, whether we drive four-in-hand or a push-cart, is whether we can make the world better or worse.

He indicated also briefly something of the immensities of the universe in which the earth and man is such a small thing and yet through his power of appreciation comes to a feeling that he is akin to all that is behind this great universe. We can enter into the universe of appreciation, and yet the only thing that is worth while, what all, whether we drive four-in-hand or a push-cart, is whether we can make the world better or worse.

He indicated also briefly something of the immensities of the universe in which the earth and man is such a small thing and yet through his power of appreciation comes to a feeling that he is akin to all that is behind this great universe. We can enter into the universe of appreciation, and yet the only thing that is worth while, what all, whether we drive four-in-hand or a push-cart, is whether we can make the world better or worse.

He indicated also briefly